LIBRARY COMPANY.

A Law for increasing the Price of Shares.

FOR the increasing the funds of the Library Company of Philadelphia, for the enlarging the collection of books, and facilitating the advancement of knowledge and literature, It is enacted by the said Library Company of Philadelphia, That any person or persons (who shall be approved of by the Directors, for the time being) shall be admitted a member or members of the said Company as fully, to all intents and purposes, as any member now is or can be, upon paying, into the hands of the said Company's Treasurer, the sum of FORTY DOLLARS, and receiving a certificate, agreeably to the directions of a law directing the manner of admitting new members.

And be it further enacted, That so much of the law, passed on the twentieth day of February, one thousand seven hundred and sixty-eight, as fixes the price of a share at ten pounds, be hereby repealed.

Enacted at a general meeting, held pursuant to public notice, on Friday the thirtieth day of August, 1793.

Benjamin R. Morgan, Secretary.

An act to repeal so much of any law or laws of the Company as authorizes the Directors to dispose of the real estate belonging to the Company.

IT is enacted by the Library Company of Philadelphia, That so much of any law or laws as authorizes and empowers the Directors to grant or demise any part of the real estate belonging to the said Company shall be and the same is hereby repealed. Provided always nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to restrain the Directors from making leases or agreements relative to the building erected for the reception of the Loganian Library, the cellar under the same, and the cellar under the building in which the Library belonging to this institution is now contained.

Enacted at a general meeting, held pursuant to public notice, on the sixteenth day of March, 1795.

Benjamin R. Morgan, Secretary.

At a meeting of the Directors of the Library Company of Philadelphia, April 17th. 1795.

The Secretary reported, That the following act has been passed by the Legislature of this commonwealth, viz.

“ An act to authorize the Directors of the Library Company of Philadelphia to increase the annual payment of the Members of the said Company.

*“ W*HEREAS, by the charter of the said company, the annual payments directed to be made by its respective members appear limited to the sum of ten shillings, which, from the depreciation of money since the year one thousand seven hundred and forty two, when the said charter was granted, has become inadequate to the purposes originally intended: And whereas the stockholders in the said company, at a general meeting on the sixteenth of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, instructed the Directors to petition the Legislature to pass a law authorizing the said Directors to increase the said payments to two Dollars, and it appears reasonable that the prayer of the said petitioners should be granted:

CATALOGUE
LIBRARY CO
OF
PHILADELPHIA

SUPPLEMENT

1793

Fourth Supplement to the Catalogue of Books belonging to The Library Company of Philadelphia. Philadelphia: Printed by Zachariah Poulson, Junior, Librarian, 1798.

In the fourth supplement to the 1789 catalogue, the Library Company issued its first list of books not to be taken out of the library. Some of them, such as Catesby's Natural History of Carolina, are obvious rarities, but the list is made up primarily of fine books--voyages and travels, books with engraved plates--rather than rare books. There are, however, several volumes of pamphlets relating to American history and politics in the mid-eighteenth century, the same sort of rare Americana we still avidly collect.
